

ARMY BOXING CHAMPIONSHIPS

BATTLES AT THE ALBERT HALL.

Picture. :- Albert Hall, packed almost to suffocation for the Army and Territorial Boxing Championships. This is Driver Shepherd, Royal Engineers, beating Corporal Collins of the 2nd Battalion King's Regiment - pasting his superior in fact. In this bout Rifleman Smith of the 6th Cameronians has an opponent who bobs up and down somewhat. Private Rennie, of the 7th

D.L.I., but he bobbed once too often and didn't come up again.

Another sanguinary bout is between Corporal Jones of the King's Regiment and Private Anderson, Tanks Corps. The Corporal is game, and rises again to find that so-and-so private, and knock him out of the so-and-so army, but the driver wraps up another packet and delivers it. The music goes round and round, and the Corporal comes out with the Band. Territorial Light Heavyweight Sapper Douglas, Royal Engineers, also bites the dust, when he stops a hot one from Bombadier Robinson, of the Royal Artillery. Private Rowlands of the Loyal Regiment meets Corporal Gordon of the Gordon Highlanders. These two are fairly evenly matched, and the Corporal wins on points. What a red night !
