NEWS IN BRIEF

(D) Picture:-

And listen to this accordion band. That may make you cry some more ! I don't know ! It's all accordion !
No, rub that one out ! This to-do is the Cannes Battle of Flowers. The weather is wonderful, and everything out of the garden is levely. Loads of blooms and mischief parade the streets, and music and happy laughter fill the scented air, - - so say the local press reports. It is contended that the great attraction is the flower display, but don't you believe it !
