NEWS IN BRIEF.

Picture:- This makes an attractive camera show, but there's real work to be done, girls, so shuffle along.

The Scottish Girls Cross-Country Race at Bishopbriggs, Glasgow. The pistol goes, and off streak the girls. The course is strenuous, but the ladies are lusty, and can leap ditches as sure-footed as - -

and can negotiate barbed wire with hardly a rip to show for it. Miss J. Tait looks like the winner, but in the final spurt, Mildred Storrar passed her and won, and if they had let off a mouse instead of a gun, they would have done it even quicker.

(B)

Picture:- And take a look at this ! Girls in scratch-as-scratch can wrestlers. Nothing barred, except vitriol throwing, and biting where the marks will show. And do they know the holds and breaks ? They know all that, and then some. Just look at that technique. Gloria puts a lovely half-Nelson on Clara, and things look tough, but Clara wriggles a great wriggle, and gets out. But Mrs.

Referee has to but in at this moment to save the honour of the game, and Gloria's beauty. Then Clara gets mad, and, oh, the cat ! This looks like real trouble. Let's get out of here, chaps !
