News of all kinds from this week, from all quarters of the globe; starting off with a military training school in Italy, where the tank exercises are obviously designed thanks apartment a plumber

2460

Toronto, Canada --- yes, they've got cold weather there, too.

didn't

Where the heaviest snowstorm for three years/mankers stop the meeting of the trotters. At five below zero, they couldn't stop

On the Continent, the weather is just right for bob-sledding; and if you're the kind of sportsman who enjoys aparachute drop with no parachute --- this is your sport.

Sweden, too; on Lake Runn, a migget car sets out to beat the world record on ice. As far as the average motorist is concerned, this is one record they can keep on ice.

In Holland --- there's the annual skating race of just over a hundred and fifty miles on the frozen canals --- passing through eleven towns

In fact, all over the Continent, men were travelling on the winged feet of mercury, like it or not. In Paris, even the birds were skidding as they chased after scraps of food. But for the seals and sea-lions, it was just the job.

Across the world, our Universal News finds lovely Marilyn Monroe in Japan, on her honeymoon. If there was any ice here, it's melted.

Now across in China --- to Pakistan; --- where the Age Khan arrives in Karachi for celebration of his Jubilee as head of the Ismaili Mahomedans. Normally, His Highness is presented with his weight in gold and precious stones. But this was a platinum Jubilee so platinum was used instead. Extinter It's one job you don't want to prepare for by slimming.

Back to Europe. MAR In Germany, Youth Delegations in Bonn celebrated their president's Birthday with a torchlight procession. They had to make do with torches, because the Foreign Ministers in Berlin, failed to deliver the fireworks.

In Britain - piece of post war Germany. The ten-thousand-

In Britain --- a piece of post-war Germany. The ten-thousand ton liner Schwabenstein, docking in Southempton, is the first German passenger-liner built since the war. And its arrival marks the re-entry of Germany into competition with the Red Ensign. It is designed for service in the Far East.

But of course you have to go to America to see the first heavyweight boxing sontest taxtake place under water. It's a change, anyway; afrom those heavyweights who look as if they're under chloroform.

is that the promise of smokes his cigar under were Jack Solomons Marche Ieneh

Now we hand over to the surprise Commentator + Bottle - obtle!