

Here's a story of a Czechoslovakian training plane that is being returned with thanks by the United States authorities in Europe. It landed unexpectedly in the American Zone in Bavaria and goes back by road through the Iron Curtain. One of the pilots went back with the plane; but the other decided to ask permission to ~~xxxx~~ remain in the freedom of the western world.

RHODESIAN PARLIAMENT.

In the city of Salisbury in Southern Rhodesia the Governor-General, Lord Llewellyn arrived for the opening of Parliament..... the first Parliament of the new Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland

Thus --- the formation of a new state within the British Commonwealth, is an accomplished fact. ~~xxx~~ This Parliament will govern a population of seven million people --- and an area larger than the Union of South Africa.

DOG SHOW.

In New York, the big dog show is the Westminster Kennel Club get-together at Madison Square Garden. There are two thousand five hundred and seventy-two entries, representing a hundred and six different breeds. Their owners will tell you they're all almost human.... even to the extent of livening up the proceedings by holding a ~~Power~~ <sup>Three-</sup> Power Conference. The five best-in-class took part in the final; and the best-in-show for 1954, was a cocker spaniel.

MEXICAN DIVING.

Mexican champion Capilla did a cutaway one-and-a-half in the fancy-diving competition at Palm Springs; and America's Olympic ace Pat ~~McCormick~~

McCormick capped that one, with a two-and-a-half. So the Mexican had another try and produced a real beauty. Then --- just as it was beginning to look like being a high-class contest, some of the boys joined in with a six-and-seven eighths.
