

In Panmunjon, Communists who had been interned in South Korea during the war were paraded to sign acceptances. But so deep is their mistrust of ~~may~~ everything --- the newsreel camera threw them into a state of near-panic.

GERMAN CHANCELLOR.

Arriving at Le Bourget, the West German Federal Chancellor was welcomed by M. Bidault, the French Foreign Minister. Dr Adenauer is in Paris, for talks with the French Government.

BRUSSELS BALL.

Ever popular and always full of zing --- Josephine Baker was in great form at the Money Ball in Brussels. This is an annual affair in the Belgian capital, held to raise holiday funds for poor children. Part of the show is a fancy dress carnival and election of ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ Queen of the Ball. She's got enough clothes on, to be queen of the three balls.

FRANCO - VIETNAM CONFERENCE.

At the Quai d'Orsay in Paris, Vietnamese delegates led by Prince Buu Loc arrived to open discussions with the French Government. They were welcomed by M. Laniel. Purpose of the Conference, is to establish Viet Nam independence within the French Union.

AGRICULTURAL SHOW.

Proving that man is above the beasts of the field, men on stilts led the parade when M. Coty, attended the annual agricultural Show in Paris. This was one of M. Coty's first public appearances since his election as President of France.

U.S. JETS.

Jets of the American Air Force were inspected by President Jimenez when they called at Caracas in Venezuela, on a mission of goodwill. Then --- over to Cuba --- as the goodwill tour took them to Havana, for inspection by President Batista.