

STORIES
TWO ONLY
HERE
↓
↑

From the roof of the world --- these pictures show an American coastguard ice-breaker and Navy convoy, smashing through the white barrier of the north --- taking relief supplies to Upper Greenland and Elæsmeré Island. A helicopter is used to assist navigation in these treacherous frozen seas. The convoy is through; welcome stores, and welcome communication with the outside world --- come to air bases and weather stations in the ~~Arctic~~ lonely Arctic LONE TRIP TO NEW ZEALAND.

Here is another candidate hoping to join the select company of men who have sailed across the world alone. A twenty-four-year-old Dutchman, Andre Bouwmeester, takes stores and instruments and the Family Bible, on board his ten-metre yacht "The Seven Seas" And then sets sail from Holland --- bound for New Zealand. He expects the voyage to last at least six months. Good luck --- and happy landfall!

ST LAURENT IN KOREA.

Continuing his tour abroad, Canada's Prime Minister Mr St Laurent, went to Korea; and visited a camp of Canadian troops --- the 25th Infantry Brigade. Near the South Korean capital, he unveiled a Memorial plaque to Canadians who died in this war.

DOG SHOW.

Also in Korea --- a few lighthearted hours in a land of tragedy..... American Marines holding their own dog show.

~~SOME~~ Some of the entries were a bit short on pedigree --- but they made up with the kind of tricks that catch a judge's eye. The champion doesn't care about drinking champagne out of his Cup; but the ribbon tastes wonderful.