GOLF.

At Augusta, Georgia, the fabulous Babe Zaharias drives off in the Women's Titleholders Championship. And this is Louise Suggs --- at this stage leading the field. Three strokes ahead of the ever-determined Babe. Here's a long one going down from Batty Berg.

At the eighteenth, Miss Suggs goes for another long one;; and though she missed it --- the Cup was hers.

LINER ORSOVA. CUE 4

At Tilbury --- the maiden voyage of the new Orient liner Orsova; --- with a new type of funnel that's being called the Welsh Bonnet..... while the skipper, Captain Whinfield, proudly shows a picture of the old Orsova, in which he served as fifth officer. This new 28,000-ton liner has accommodation for fifteen hundred passengers.

QUEEN JULIANA.

Queen Juliana of the Netherlands, was presented with a bouquet on an eccasion which recalled the dark days of the war. It was an informal ceremony of the unveiling of a plaque, to commemorate the return of her mother, Queen Wilhelmina, from wartime exile from Holland.

HERRING FISHING.

A school of humpback whales, in a fjord in British Columbia, is a sign that there's a good harvest of fish in the neighbourhood. So the boats of the herring fleet put out their nets: and the sign proved to be right. The biggest catch for years came into the nets, and the whales lost their ~~dinner.~~ meal. So, as so often happens --- the whale said to his wife; next time ~~I take you out fishing~~ we go out to dinner, perhaps you'll keep your big mouth shut.

TOYS.

Toys in store for 1954 include

~~A [illegible] store for [illegible] the [illegible] of 1954~~

~~[illegible] for the [illegible] it there's~~ a non-tiring playing companion in this mechanical father. Teddy Bears are as popular as ever -- but of course a growing boy can't be satisfied with toys all the time. He wants the real thing. Now it's all over bar the shotgun wedding.
