

DIVING.

9/4/54,

International high diving at Panama City; and from eighty-five feet Mexico's Louis Botolo grazed his arm on the pole.

To beat that, Sol Solomon put the pole up to a hundred and twenty feet --- and the rigging slipped.

But they say you can't have a harp unless you join the Musicians' Union.

STOCK CARS.

And once again ---the Stock Car Races. Flat out for one hundred miles --- with collisions at eighty miles an hour just a part of the programme.

No serious injuries that time --- and the race went on. But another driver was not so lucky.

The driver was severely injured. The miracle was that he wasn't killed.

BRAKE SAFETY WEEK.

But for the ordinary motorist --- the roads are dangerous enough. So a West London garage has started a system of brake-testing free of charge. You can contribute to road safety, by seeing that your brakes are one hundred per cent efficient.
