

2490

BILLY GRAHAM.

25/5/54.

Following a gathering at the White City, a crowd of approximately a hundred and twenty thousand packed into Wembley Stadium for the farewell meeting of the young American Evangelist Billy Graham. He arrived with the Archbishop of Canterbury --- and the meeting opened with singing.

Then he gave his farewell message.

And the Archbishop of Canterbury gave a final Benediction.

This --- despite the cold and rainy weather --- was the spectacular conclusion of Billy Graham's twelve weeks crusade in Britain; when thousands came forward at the ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ invitation of the Evangelist, and declared themselves for Christ.