

At the Moffatt Air Station in America a U.S. Navy experimental plane undergoes trials. Powerful turbo-prop engines lift it off the floor --- with cables attached to it in case anything goes wrong.

ANNAPOLIS.

At Annapolis, the fiancée of the commander of the top midshipman company, has the honour of presenting the Colour on the annual passing-out parade. And for a brigade of over three thousand strong, this is the climax of the year. Annapolis is the naval officers' Academy of the United States, where they learn everything a naval officer needs to know.

PARADE IN ROME.

To celebrate the eighth anniversary of the foundation of the Republic of Italy --- the most gigantic parade ever seen in Rome. It was attended by <sup>the</sup> President, <sup>the</sup> Premier, and by the American Ambassador, Mrs Clare Luce.

SHERPA TENSING IN GENEVA.

A great welcome in Geneva for a man who is used to the high spots. It's Tiger Tensing --- who, with Edmund Hillary, shared the honour of setting foot upon the summit of Mount Everest. He is in Geneva to inspect a school of mountain climbing.

BELGIAN PLANE.

The radio officer was killed, the first pilot and engineer were wounded, when ~~this Belgian~~ this Belgian commercial plane was shot up over Yugoslav territory. The plane had been carrying a cargo of pigs. The second pilot, Douglas Wilson, who took over the controls and safely ~~landed~~ <sup>landed</sup> brought the plane, ~~in to the British zone in Austria,~~ said the attacking plane was an MIC.