

In Holland --- this is a demonstration of the latest marvel of agricultural science --- the deep plough. Drawn by three tractors, the giant cuts into the heaviest earth to a depth of six feet. It's claimed that the deep plough does the work of a hundred men; and never gets a backache.

BERLIN RIOTS.

On the anniversary of the anti-Communist riots in ~~East~~ Eastern Germany, meetings were held in West Berlin, in favour of the unification of the whole of Germany. Communists crossed the border from the Soviet Zone, and attempted to break up the meetings; and the police had to save them from the crowd.

RETURN FROM KOREA.

Relatives on the quay at San Francisco awaited the return of the Californian Fortieth Division from Korea. And there were tearful reunions, when mothers, sisters, sweethearts and wives greeted their loved-ones --- after three years.

FESTIVAL OF BOYHOOD.

This was called the Festival of Boyhood; and new Colours were presented to the London District, when representatives of twenty-two London Battalions paraded in Wembley Stadium. They were units of the Boys' Brigade; this parade was in honour of their founder of this great youth movement -- Sir William Smith. Also on parade were the Old Boys.

TESTING GROUND FOR CARS.

On the automobile testing ground at Chelsea in Michigan, the track is so precisely built that cars automatically steer themselves --- even up to a speed of a hundred and forty miles an hour. This should be handy for the kind of driver who only knows one rule of the road --- when in doubt, shut your eyes.
