

Our cameraman in a helicopter was filming the National Hydroplane Meeting on the Welsh Harp in London; and here they go for the 350 cc. B Class Championship.

Buzzing round and round like mosquitoes on a summer evening; all except one who decided that he'd rather be a tadpole.

And here comes the winner --- No. 157. The name of the winning boat was "Tops" and the winning driver was Mr Charles A. Bottem.

Now, on comparatively dry land, Lord Burghley was the starter when a large field went away from Windsor on the twenty-six mile Marathon to Chiswick. The race was for the Sporting Life Trophy; incorporating the Marathon titles for the Three A's and the Southern Three A's.

Favourite was ^{- No 1 -} Jim Peters, the famous British Long Distance runner who is the world's Marathon No. 1. In his usual dogged fashion, he came first into the stadium, ^{minutes} ~~minutes~~ ahead of the field. ~~and~~ He set up a new record time; he covered the twenty-six mile course in two hours, seventeen minutes thirty-nine seconds; and he won the Trophy for the fourth year in succession.
