

Princess in Germany

Flying to West Germany, Princess Margaret began a three-day tour of British military centres. After airport greetings, she inspected the Guard of Honour - composed of ~~various~~ British and Canadian units. Later, in the Presidential Palace, at Bonn, the Princess was received by Professor Heuss, the Federal President...while the Chancellor, Dr Adenauer added his own personal greeting...on her first visit to Germany.

Jeep race

From the word "go" this "Grand National for Jeeps" near Washington, was no contest for faint hearts or fair tactics....

It was no "colds" barred - or a splash in time slows up a dangerous rival.

Jeep jockeys flogging their iron steeds for the world championship..

But the old grey jeep ain't what she used to be....

Raising a dust now - speeding with the lid off..

A Local boy ~~with a~~ won the championship, the lady found consolation in a mud-pack.

Motor cycle in Holland

The Dutch Motor-cycle Grand Prix at Assen...races that count vital points towards the world championships...

In the 500 c.c. class - top rider Geoffrey Duke No. 1 (riding an Italian Gilera) speeds over the 147 mile course - bound for victory...

During the race - Duke set up a new lap record with a speed of 105.4 miles per hour..

The laurels of victory crown a worthy speed king - Geoffrey Duke - one race nearer to retaining his world crown.
