

Soccer in Vienna

~~XXXXXX~~

In Vienna, the famous Moscow Dynamos (who toured Britain in 1945) met the Austrian champions - the Rapid Club... though before the kick-off - it looked more like a battle of flowers..

But once the game started, it proved a fascinating exhibition in true continental vein - with slide-rule passes and the ball "on the carpet". In fact, all those things were taught the world and now seem to have forgotten...

No score at half-time - then a goal by Dienst, gave the Austrians a narrow victory...
