

London: Tenants from the Bride's family estate, in Scotland, were among the many guests at St. James's, Spanish Place, for the wedding of Lady Mary Baillie Hamilton. The only daughter of Lord and Lady Haddington, the Bride wore a gown made from more than a hundred yards of white silk organza, net and lace... (Count 2)

The small attendants revived memories of Kate Greenaway's ^{CHARMING} Victorian illustrations.

And bright sunshine smiled on the summer bride (who was one of the Queen's Maids-of-Honour at the Coronation) as she re-appeared on the arm of her Groom, Mr Adrian Bailey.

Setting the seal on ^A this brilliant ~~wedding~~ wedding, the Queen ^{HERSELF} graced the reception - to congratulate her childhood friend... (Count 2)

Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother and Princess Margaret also joined the distinguished company.

A happy ~~occasion~~ occasion - with those little "Kate Greenaway" characters ~~causing a brilliant wedding~~ stealing more than a fair share of the admiring glances.
