

Jet planes presented by the Canadian Government to Greece were received by the War Minister at the Airport for Athens --- and blessed before being sent aloft for a fly-past under their new flag. ~~10~~<sup>4</sup> The planes were the famous Sabre jets. ~~2~~<sup>4</sup>.

GUATEMALA SMALL ARMS.

In Guatemala City, representatives of the new anti-Communist Government, inspected arms taken over from the deposed Government of President Arbenz. Manufactured in Czechoslovakia, ten million dollars' worth had been delivered for use against the rebels. <sup>14</sup> Also ~~in the consignment~~ were field guns and other large-calibre ~~ammunition~~ war material; But the new Government, against whom the arms were never used, say they were useless anyway. ~~24~~<sup>4</sup>.

RODEO.

In Salinas, California, --- this was the biggest rodeo of the west that used to be wild; the first rider was tough --- but in the end the beef was tougher. ~~8~~<sup>6</sup>

No. 2 lost his hat; and once again, Mr Bull dictated the peace terms. ~~4~~<sup>3</sup>

And here's the local champion; the aristocrat of the ranch who only moves in the best circles; who finally got the cold shoulder from the hot beef. ~~8~~<sup>3</sup>

CHIMPS HOLIDAY OUTING.

In the New Jersey Zoo at Palisades Park, there's a popular chimp whose job it is to amuse the public; but Mambo couldn't care less about the public --- he just likes a good time. So he goes boating with his girl-friend, Cathy. Cathy told Mambo she simply adored the water; so Mambo said: "O.K., baby --- I'll get you ~~xxxxxx~~ a bit." ~~16~~<sup>10</sup>
