

GRAND PRIX D'EUROPE.

6/8/54.

~~Twenty cars taking part in the Grand Prix of Europe on the Nurburgring --- watched by a crowd of three hundred thousand --- and our camera going aloft to film by helicopter.~~

~~This occasion marked the return of the German Mercedes to big ~~time~~ racing after fifteen years. and a Mercedes won, driven by Fangio. ~~Britain's~~ Britain's Mike Hawthorn came second --- in an Italian Ferrari.~~

ROYAL HOLIDAY IN SCOTLAND.

On their way to Balmoral for the annual holiday in Scotland, Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother with <sup>P</sup>Prince Charles and Princess Anne, left the train at Ballater after the overnight journey from London. Travelling with them was Princess Margaret; the Queen was arriving later by plane.

Already their Scottish holiday has become a favourite with the young Prince and Princess; while for ~~the~~ Deeside --- it simply means that the Royal Family has come home.
