

At A Diplomat<sup>ic</sup> reception in his summer residence at Bled, Marshal Tite of Yugoslavia entertained the Foreign Ministers of Turkey, Greece and his own country. This was to celebrate the signing of the pact, providing for joint defence by all these three nations, in the event of one of them being the victim of aggression. This was also one of the rare public appearances of Madame Tite. 17-3

DIONNE FUNERAL.

This is the farmhouse outside the little Canadian village of Callander where, a good many years ago, five little girls were born. And at birth they instantly became world-famous. The world saw them always together, as news films and ~~sixteen~~ photographs showed them growing up --- the Dienne Quins. Now they have been separated by the death of Emilie Dienne at the age of twenty; she has been laid to rest in the bush-country cemetery of Cerbell.

MOTOR BOAT RACE.

This is the forty-seventh renewal of the big American motor boat race called the Gold Cup; There were nine starters --- and they lapped at speeds of approximately a hundred miles an hour. Going flat out, one boat developed faulty steering and went ashore. The winner was a boat named Sle-me-shun..... but that was being modest. He made a new lap record at a hundred and four point seven.

HUMAN YO-YO.

Thrilling the holidaymakers at Atlantic City is a new kind of death-defying act. The Great Frederice gets his teeth on a rubber rope and ~~can~~ does this. They say he got the idea one day when he slammed the door on his braces.
