SWISS GRAND PRIX.

27/8/54.

Sixteen starters on the Bremgarten track at Berne, competing for one of the top prizes of motor racing --- the Swiss Grand Prix. Among the drivers are the Britinh aces Stirling Mess and Mike Hawthorn --- but they are having the drive Italian cars. The big battle is between Italy and Germany who receive Government backing. The winner was a German Mercedes --- with Argentine driver Fangio at the wheel. This victory gave him the worldtitle for 1954. FIRST PLANE FLIGHT.

A group of old people showed it's never tee late for a fresh experience, when they took their first aeroplane ride from the new airpert in San Francisco. And for one of them, it was an extra special eccasion --- that cake was to celebrate his one hundred and first birthday. His first trip across American country was in a covered wagen

BABY FLIES.

And here at the other end of the scale --- is the first flight by Christine Tuegel, of Munich. She is only twelve weeks eld. It's no joy-ride for Christine. She has a very rare brain disease --- and she is going to Boston to be seen by a brilliant surgeon, who specializes in the necessary operation.

BRISBANE SHOW.

Behind the scenes at the Brisbane Show, Australian cattle were given a shampoo before facing the judges. An interesting exhibit going into the show-ring for the first time was the Zebu --- a sort of ex with a hump. But he cheered up when they made him a champion. One beautiful young heifer, after her xine shampoe, rushed up to try and join a party of goats. She wanted to know why they got xeeks perfume and she didn't.
