

Coalmine in the sky.

Just as a change from the coalmine deep down below the earth --- here's one that's nearly up in the sky. A valuable seam has been discovered seven thousand feet above sea level --- in the Rocky Mountains of Canada. ~~Who~~ Who said there's nothing new under the sun? Winding down to Southern Alberta with a fifteen - ton lead --- the coalman sings the blackface version of "Comin' round the Mountain".

EISENHOWER.& LEGION.

The American Legion opens its annual convention in Washington; and President Eisenhower, himself a veteran of the two World Wars, broke his holiday to come home and join them. For this occasion, Legionnaires had come to the capital from all parts of America --- a mass meeting of seven thousand.

WEDDING MASKS.

If it's news it's universal and if it's Universal it's news. So one of our News in a Flash, Cameramen, decided, that news was a bit short in this world and he went to look for it elsewhere.

That's his story. But it turned out it was only a new type of welding mask, as worn in Germany.
