

It was extra stormy weather at Hurlingham when Dr Roger Bannister arrived to open the new L.C.C. Sports Centre. Film stars Janette Scott and Anthony Steel were also present to hear the famous miler speak of these centres which -----

Our sound recordist was among these undaunted by the rain as Dr Bannister broke the tape for the first time; and nobody could blame the canteen, if the cups of char tasted a bit watery. So despite the weather --- it managed to finish up as one of these occasions when a good time was had by all.
