

AMERICAN TOUR FOR QUEEN MOTHER.

22/10/54.

Prince Charles and Princess Anne accompanied the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh to London's Waterloo Station, to take part in the family farewell to the Queen Mother. This was the first stage of Her Majesty's trans-Atlantic voyage, for a tour of the United States and Canada.

Also at the station were Sir Winston Churchill, and Mr Aldrich, the American Ambassador.

While in New York, the Queen Mother will stay at the home of Britain's delegate to the United Nations, Sir Pierson Dixon.....

~~and~~ as the train pulls out, we join in wishing Her Majesty "God Speed."

Farewells finished --- Prince Charles decided it was time to go.

At Southampton, the Cunard liner Queen Elizabeth was ready and waiting..... ~~as the train pulls out, we join in wishing Her Majesty "God Speed."~~ Princess Margaret had accompanied her mother on the train from London. Her Majesty is no stranger in the United States and Canada; this new visit will further strengthen the ties between ~~the~~ us.
