

The services led the way when the annual Show introduced the year of office for the new Lord Mayor of London --- Alderman Seymour Howard who ~~was~~ took the salute from the Mansion House.

On the musical side, there were eleven bands.

~~But~~ this year the theme of the Show was "The Colonies Come to Town"; and in place of the traditional fog and rain, these sunny outposts had brought the sunshine with them.

From the West Indies ~~the~~ Calypso.

Then --- to end the procession --- more picturesque than for many years --- the Lord Mayor's Coach moved along through Ludgate Hill and Fleet Street, with an escort of Household Cavalry, and the Pikemen of the Honourable Artillery Company.

And the arrival at the Law Courts was announced by a trumpet fanfare.
