

This Silver Statuette of the famous “ Sun Chariot ” which he rode to classic victories for the late King George --- was the Trophy presented by the Sporting Life to Sir Gordon Richards, ~~xxxx~~ to mark his retirement from race riding. And at a luncheon in his honour, a glowing tribute was paid by the Duke of Norfolk.

In his reply, this great little man of the Turf who was the champion of all champion jockeys ~~before he decided to become a~~ ~~trainer~~ --- was in a mood for leg-pulling as he looked back over the past thirty <sup>-odd</sup> years.
