

This~~xxx~~ was the closing day of the trial of 77-year-old French farmer Gaston Dominici, charged with the murder of the British holidaymakers Sir Jack Drummond, his wife and their ~~an~~ eleven-year-old daughter. Despite the pleading of his counsel, the jury of seven men returned a verdict of guilty; and Dominici was sentenced to death by the guillotine.

BUDGERIGAR SHOW.

At the Horticultural Hall in London --- the 1954 Club Show of the Budgerigar Society.

The award of first prize in its class to this cobalt cock, caused a certain amount of nastiness among the rival pairs of levers. But after the first disappointment --- the tiff was soon forgotten. After all -- we still have each other.

WAR VETERANS.

Hundreds of delegates representing twenty-five nations, attended the General Assembly of the World Federation of War Veterans, in Vienna. One who may be known to you is Harold Russell. One of the objects of the Federation, is the helping of the disabled..... an outstanding example being ~~the~~ Mr Russell, who played so brilliantly in the film "The Best Years of Our Lives." In conclusion, wreaths for the fallen were laid together, by veterans who had fought, as enemies, in the Second World War.

ALGERIA?

~~Dispatches~~ Dispatches from Algeria this week show an attack by French forces on a village held by Algerian Nationalist rebels.

This was mainly a mopping-up operation; it ended with the bringing in of suspects for questioning.