

At the parish church of Woodstock in Oxfordshire --- Princess Margaret was present at a christening ceremony. For, once again, Her Royal Highness was to be a godmother.

The baby was two-months-old Alexander Pepys Muir --- a grandson of the Duke of Marlborough and a nephew of the Marquess of Blandford, whose family name is Spencer-Churchill.

The baby's mother is Lady Rosemary Muir --- the Duke's youngest daughter --- who was a maid of honour to the Queen, at the Coronation.
