CYCLE INTERNATIONAL.

UNDER VOICE.

Riders from eight nations competed in this international at Zurich-Oerlikon --- and a crowd of seven thousand watched a contest that gave them a thrill <sup>6</sup> ~~3~~ <sup>3</sup> ~~3~~ minute. Soon after the start --- Zehnder was brought heavily down <sup>3</sup> ~~4~~ <sup>4</sup>

Watch how first one and then another shoots into the lead <sup>2</sup> ~~3~~ <sup>3</sup>

BOBSLED.

At Garmisch --- the title <sup>Contest</sup> for four-man bobsled teams was <sup>held</sup> on the Olympic race-track. <sup>4</sup> ~~4~~ <sup>4</sup> And here, too, were thrills --- as competitors flirted with death on the edge of the white walls <sup>4</sup> ~~7~~

The result was a sensation; a young team led by Schelle, beat the four-times champions into second place <sup>4</sup> ~~2~~ <sup>2</sup> SHALLA
PRONCED

GOLDEN GLOVES.

In the Golden Gloves Tournament in Brooklyn the fighters were amateurs; but they went down like professionals. <sup>4</sup> ~~3~~

Rocco Ferrare --- v. Brune Raschella; and Raschella <sup>10</sup> ~~10~~ goes down again. <sup>2</sup> ~~4~~

And --- he's third time unlucky! <sup>2</sup> ~~2~~

Here's a couple of windmills in action..... Pat Ardonine and Forrest Sorber.

A festival of slugging ends with Sorber biting the dust. <sup>6</sup> ~~3~~

Sorber fights back gamely --- but soon he is back where he came from. <sup>2</sup> ~~4~~

Next gent, please. Martin Brenner --- versus Arthur Wittenburg

<sup>Now</sup> ~~there~~ it's Brenner who's dishing it out. <sup>5</sup> ~~6~~ <sup>7</sup>
