

~~At the opening~~ ^{after} the new Session of Congress --- ~~marking~~ the change ^{in control} ~~from~~ ~~the~~ control from Republican to Democrat --- President Eisenhower underlined America's policy of peace through ~~strength~~ ^{strength.}

under voice.

Riders from eight nations competed in this international at Zurich-Oerlikon --- and a crowd of seven thousand watched a contest that gave them a thrill ⁶ ~~3~~ ³ ~~3~~ minute. Soon after the start --- Zehnder was brought heavily down ³ ~~4~~

Watch how first one and then another shoots into the lead ² ~~3~~

The winner was the international ace, Ven ~~Baron-Gillen~~ ² ~~3~~ ³

BOBSLED.

At Garmisch --- the title ^{Contest} for four-man bobsled teams was ^{held} on the Olympic race-track. ⁴ ~~4~~ And here, too, were thrills --- as competitors flirted with death on the edge of the white walls ⁴ ~~7~~

The result was a sensation; a young team led by Schelle, beat the four-times champions into second place ⁴ ~~2~~ SHALLA
PRONCED

GOLDEN GLOVES.

In the Golden Gloves Tournament in Brooklyn the fighters were amateurs; but they went down like professionals. ⁴ ~~3~~

Rocco Ferrare --- v. Brune Raschella; and Raschella ¹⁰ ~~gave~~ down again. ² ~~4~~

And --- he's third time unlucky! ² ~~2~~

Here's a couple of windmills in action..... Pat Ardonine and Forrest Sorber.

A festival of slugging ends with Sorber biting the dust. ⁶ ~~3~~

Sorber fights back gamely --- but soon he is back where he came from. ² ~~4~~

Next gent, please. Martin Brenner --- versus Arthur Wittenburg.

Now ~~there~~ it's Brenner who's dishing it out. ⁵ ~~6~~ ⁷
