

SCHOOLBOYS' EXHIBITION CLOSES.

14/1/55

If you lose your cap at the Schoolboys' Exhibition, you know where it'll be.

Lost property? We've got a hundred lines. But fortunately Jimmy Edwards was there, to help them find the things they had so carelessly mislaid.

Bless my soul, boy --- you'll be losing your head next. Yes, sir! Same to you, sir.

Take this thing out of the way. Take it for a ride on your space ship. Space --- yes --- that's one thing we can do with a lot more of.

SWIMMING.

In Berlin --- at the Olympic Stadium --- the hundred metres backstroke for women.

It was an international competition; and the stylish winner was Geertjes Wilema, from Holland.

CARDINAL SPELMAN.

In Indo-China --- Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, arrived at Saigon during his tour of the Far East. Welcomed by a reception committee --- greeted fervently by the crowds --- he blessed them, and brought them the good wishes of the American people.

CANADIAN PARLIAMENT.

At the Parliament Buildings in Ottawa --- the Canadian Governor-General arrived for the ceremonial opening of the second session of the Twenty-second Parliament.

Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod summoned the Members of the House of Commons to the Senate.

And --- with Black Rod leading --- M.P.'s walked in procession to hear, from the Queen's representative in Canada, the Speech from the Throne.
