

This is the time of year when sporting motor cyclists take their pleasure ~~xxxx~~ where the going is tough. And here it's the Minnie Grenfell Memorial Trophy Trial at Tilford, near Farnham. The length of the course was approximately forty miles..... and the time in which competitors were expected to complete the run was four hours. It sounds a long time; but with going like this --- it must have seemed even longer

ROYAL PLANE CREW.

~~starting~~ At London Airport --- <sup>British Commonwealth</sup> members of the crew of the plane in which Princess Margaret starts her tour of the Caribbean. The pilot is <sup>a Canadian</sup> Captain Peter Fair --- who has flown the Atlantic four hundred times --- and with him is Air Hostess Faith Sisman. Good luck to all --- and bon voyage.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER.

Universal News is in on the making of history at the White House in Washington. This is the first time ~~xxxxx~~ cameras have been allowed to shoot at a Press Conference with the President. To become President is the ambition of every American boy. But Mr Eisenhower's reply, when asked how he likes his job after two years in office, may reduce the waiting list.
