

M
 Sir Winston Churchill was host at No. 10 Downing Street to the other Prime Ministers of the Commonwealth in London; an early arrival was Australia's Mr Menzies, followed by India's Mr Nehru with his sister. And here --- leading the way in, is Mr St Laurent, the Prime Minister of Canada. In his most genial mood, Sir Winston showed his colleagues a framed postal order for five shillings which had been sent to him by an old-age pensioner.

Presently they were joined by Sir Anthony Eden, who opened the discussion on the international situation. And here is Mrs Pandit, the Indian High Commissioner in London.

In the group --- it's Mr St Laurent of Canada seated at Sir Winston's right hand, with Mr Holland of New Zealand next to him. Standing are Mr Swart of South Africa and Mr Ali of Pakistan; at Sir Winston's left hand is Mr Menzies of Australia --- and behind him ~~Sir John Kotelawala, of Ceylon and Sir Geoffrey Haggins, of the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland.~~

representatives of Ceylon and

~~Sir John Kotelawala, of Ceylon and Sir Geoffrey Haggins, of~~

~~the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland.~~

behind Mr Nehru

Central Africa