

Florida Beach --- and instead of the familiar parade of ~~xxxxxx~~ Bathing Lovelies it's a car race where, as they say, they drive like crazy.

But this meeting ended in real tragedy; in the worst pile up, one driver was killed.

SKI-FLYING.

At Oberstdorf, in Germany, this is what they called the fourth international ski-flying week..... and from here it looks as if they really do fly.

But even a bird must remember what Napoleon said; an army marches on its stomach.

The event was won by Finland with Norway second.

JURA CARNIVAL.

Every year in the border town of St Claude --- like other towns in France --- they hold a gay carnival. But nowadays if anybody holds a carnival, it has to have a theme; so they chose the theme of ~~xxxxxx~~ the friendship of France and Switzerland. Riding in state was the Carnival Queen; surrounded by maids of honour in case anyone got too friendly.

MODERN ART.

We've heard a lot about the young beauties of modern Italy; but here in Rome is a new fashion which indicates that the lovely ladies of the eternal city are still not satisfied. They're having themselves literally painted --- by the famous artist Novella Parigini.

You can think it silly if you like; but there's many a man who thinks his old woman could be improved by Graham Sutherland.
