

At the Albert Hall in London --- the Schools' Amateur Boxing Association Championships of Great Britain, sponsored by The Star. Field and Jackson were the smallest at five stone four or under --- and Jackson was the winner.

Now --- at six stone two and under --- here's a real rouser between Tew from Essex --- in dark singlet --- and Bate from Lancashire.

Tew was a great little winner --- and his ~~finishing touch~~ finishing touch was even greater.

TULYAR'S FIRST IRISH FOAL.

Of course you remember Tulyar --- one of the greatest colts ever to win the Derby, and that was in 1952. Now, at the National Stud in County Kildare --- here is two hundred and fifty thousand pound Tulyar's first Irish-born foal; another colt, ~~franklin~~ whose mother is named "Valiant". ^M The little fellow is going to America to earn dollars.

BILLY GRAHAM.

Back in Britain for another Evangelist Crusade --- MRr Billy ^{— in his forceful, compelling manner —} Graham spoke to an audience of many thousands at his opening rally in Glasgow.
