

London --- the first part of the magnificent new group of modern buildings at London Airport has been opened for business. This is the new Terminal Area Control Tower and Southern Air-Traffic Control Centre. It is equipped, of course, with all the newest devices, including radar --- and all details have been planned to be worthy of its importance, as one of the greatest centres of the world's air traffic. On the roof, a glass penthouse gives an all-round view.

Virginia --- the American Navy's first radio-controlled jet-drone takes off.

It's a pilotless jet-fighter --- used for target-practice.

Seattle --- into this American harbour, come nineteen survivors of a Stratocruiser that crashed off the coast of Oregon.

Montreal --- at work on a new oil-refinery, is the largest crane in the world. Height --- four hundred and twenty-five feet. It can lift a weight of a hundred tons.

China --- From behind the Bamboo Curtain we have acquired these pictures of the building of a new road. Thousands of workers blast a highway to the once-forbidden country of Tibet --- recently acquired by China.

Formosa --- On this island in the China Sea --- civilian volunteers undergo military training. In case of invasion from the Chinese mainland --- they will be the Home Guard.

Washington --- brought to President Eisenhower for inspection, and insured for a million and a half --- the Yonan Codex. It is a New Testament, ^{SIXTEEN} ~~nineteen~~ hundred years old.

Vatican City --- arriving for audience with His Holiness the Pope --- the President of Lebanon. Later Pope Pius gave his blessing to the people, in St Peter's Square.

Niagara --- below the famous Falls, the favourite spot for honeymoons, Niagara's River is blocked with an ice-jam twelve miles long. In some parts these inland icebergs stand forty-five feet high. Even the honeymoon couples, have noticed the cold.

Little America --- This ice-breaker has penetrated closer to the South Pole than any other ship. The crew picked up some penguins to take back to Washington Zoo. Others said ; "Not me!"

Holland --- a double wedding was celebrated in traditional costume. Almost immediately after the wedding, they ran into a blizzard. Well --- that's marriage.

London --- This was a reminder, of the good old days when traffic could travel down Bond Street as fast as a man could walk. It's a show put on for the Bond Street Avenue of Fashion Month.

Gosport --- The ancient ceremony of beating the Retreat --- performed by Boys from H.M.S. ^{SK} Vincent. A ceremony dating back to centuries past - -- when battles ended with the coming of night.

Hollywood --- A new idea in children's playgrounds. All these children are four years old or less.... and they play under the water. Hollywood nannies say it reminds them, of the good old days before the talkies.

Canada --- A Rocking Chair Marathon to see who could rock the longest. The winner went on rocking non-stop day and night --- for nearly three-and-a-half days.

Toronto --- Log-rolling at the Canadian Sportsman's Show. Here it takes less time to go off your rocker.

France --- A cross-country sponsored by the Communist newspaper L'Humanité. Russia's Kutz, and Czechoslovakia's Zatopek took part --- and Zatopek won.

Indiana --- Skittles Championship at Fort Wayne. This was the fifty-second annual contest. The Prizes totalled half a million dollars.

Germany --- Spring in the Air! All right --- don't.