QUEEN OF THE AIR. 10/5/55.

In South Africa the famous Mine Dancers appearing in connection with the University Towns Festival, were watched by Air Hostesses from all the world's airlines. And there was also a contest for the air hostesses. Here's a girl from South Africa.

Another --- from a Scandinavian airline.

This is a girl from an American airline.

And this is a British girl --- Anne Prine, of B.O.A.C. Anne was judged --- the world's Queen of the Air.

COPENHAGEN ANNIVERSARY.

N Torches and fireworks in Copenhagen celebrated the anniversary of the liberation of Denmark --- ten years after the ending of the Nazi occupation.

And --- a memorial ceremony, at a cemetery where members of the Danish resistance were buried, after facing the firing squad. There was a tribute of flowers from the Royal Air Force.

QUEEN AT OLYMPIA.

H er Majesty the Queen with the Duke of Edinburgh, paid a visit to the British Industries Fair at London's Olympia. And --- as is usual with the parents of young children --- they showed special interest in the toy section. They also met Sooty --- ~~who was fortunately on his best behaviour, and didn't throw anything at anybody.~~

Before leaving, the royal visitors made a tour of the film section and visited the modern cinema.
