

BURMA REUNION.

6/8/55.

This --- at the Albert Hall in London --- was the ninth reunion of the veterans of the Burma Campaign; and the Duke of Edinburgh was among four thousand of them, who had gathered again to hear the voice of the man who had been their Supreme Commander in South East Asia --- Earl Mountbatten of Burma.

Prince Philip was to be the next speaker --- and he received this introduction from his ~~xxxxx~~ uncle.
