ARRIVAIS IN BRITAIN.

The Duke of Gloucester travelled by helicopter when he went to Northolt Aerodrome to give an official welcome to arriving royalty. The visitor was the young King Hussein of Jordan --- who has piloted his own plane across the world in a tour embracing Greece, Italy, Spain, France --- and now Britain. With the king was his young bride --- a second of the control of

After that royal salute drom the R.A.F., the king inspected the guard of honour

Another arrival in Britain on the same day was Mr U Nu, the Prime "inister of Burma, accompanied by his with wife. During his stay in Britain, the Burmese Prime "inister will be received by the Queen, and will meet Sir Anthony Eden."

Third arrival on this busy day of welcomes, was Mr Vingent Massey, the Governor-General of Canada --- who is on a six-week visit to Britain, and who will also be received by Queen Elizabeth

