

At Canterbury Cathedral, the Dean welcomed a congregation of disabled men and women --- ex-servicemen and others --- to a service specially organised for them by the Invalid Tricycles Association. A ramp had been put down over the steps, and the aisles of the Cathedral widened, to accommodate these cheerful victims of misfortune. The service was arranged for the benefit of those whose disability, prevents their attendance at normal church services.

MARINES PARADE.

Led by the band of the Royal Marines from Deal, the annual Royal Marines Association Church Parade marched through London from Wellington Barracks to St Martin's in the Fields.

After the church service, the march past on the Horse Guards Parade..... with the salute taken by Admiral Earl Mountbatten, the First Sea Lord.

U NU AT No.10.

A visitor to No. 10 Downing Street during his stay in London was U N u, the Prime Minister of Burma. He was entertained to lunch by Sir Anthony Eden, in a small party which had also included Mr Attlee.

SUBMARINE SIDON.

At the Naval Dockyard, Portland Harbour, salvage vessels have been unceasingly busy, at the place where the submarine Sidon sank following an explosion, with the loss of thirteen lives. But all the early attempts at raising the Sidon were unsuccessful.