

Continuing fine weather was good luck for the many thousands for whom Wimbledon is the fortnight of the year. On a day of several upsets of the form-book --- Louise Brough was a star who was also a winner. Here is one of the big names from Austria ~~Huber~~ Huber, in acrobatic form. Perhaps going down was an omen; --- he went down finally to Herb Flam from America. As always, the Duchess of Kent was one of the most enthusiastic spectators. She saw British hope Bobby Wilson beaten by America's Budge Patty.

RACEHORSE PRESENTATION.

In the paddock at Newbury, Sir Gordon Richards presented to Mr Lloyd of Tonypandy the racehorse that he won in a Daily Sketch competition. Now sir ~~was~~ a few words for the mike.

Thank you! Then the new owner had a few words with the ~~former~~ former champion jockey --- ~~before~~ before going off to see his horse --- Le Glaive --- run in the Childrey Stakes. Lester Piggott was riding; --- and although they didn't win, they came in a gallant third.

OUTBOARDS.

The little buzz-boats were out on Lake Starnberg in Germany, to compete in the European championships.

Five nations sent their champions, and the race consisted of three runs of four laps each. But one of the biggest thrills in this game, is the narrow margin between outboard and overboard.

Winner was No. 92 --- Dieter Koenig of Berlin.

UNO.

At San Francisco --- this meeting of the United Nations had something special to celebrate: ~~It~~ the tenth anniversary of the founding of this world organisation whose object is peace. The representatives of America ~~and~~ and Russia had a friendly chat and --- with Mr Macmillan of Great Britain --- took their places among the delegates of sixty nations.
