 HALF ~~the~~ across the world now --- for a bantamweight battle in Sydney Stadium..... between Australia's own Bobby Sinn and André Valignat of France. It's the Frenchman in striped trunks.... and it's a battle of sluggers. <sup>10</sup>

~~In a fast close range fight he only knock down...~~
~~the Frenchman~~

And the verdict --- a win on points for the Frenchman <sup>3</sup>

Now --- Indochina ; where, though the war has ended, real fighting still continues between the Vietnamese Army, and groups of bandits. <sup>7</sup> prisoners taken and equipment captured.; <sup>2-3</sup> and the army takes over another village. <sup>4</sup>

Back to Europe; where demonstrators were out in the streets of Brussels on ~~xxx~~ the hotly-contested question of the vote on the Collard Law. The vexed question, is the Government's proposal to ~~xxxx~~ reduce the grant to Roman Catholic Schools.

No police were present, because the demonstrators had promised to be good.

In Prague --- a sporting festival that included <sup>s</sup> one of the most remarkable displays of mass P.T. ever seen. A hundred thousand spectators watched the show --- and thousands took part in it.

In Hamburg --- the eighty-sixth International Regatta on the Alster River

Our camera went along in the boat of the University of Pennsylvania- ~~---~~ and Pennsylvania were the winners.

And now to the Lake District --- to Lake Ullswater, where Donald Campbell

And now to the Lake District --- to Lake Ullswater, where Donald Campbell took his turbe-jet speedboat, out on trials before attacking the world record.

The world water speed record stands to the credit of America at just over one hundred and seventy-eight miles an hour. Campbell claims that Bluebird has already touched a speed of one hundred and eighty-five.
