

INTERNATIONAL HORSE SHOW.

22/7/55.

- for some reason or other -

slow
For the benefit of those who don't own a country house complete with stables --- the International Horse Show at the White City Stadium brings to London a refreshing glimpse of those who do

The Jumping Competitions are, of course, the most exciting items on a varied programme. This was the Country Life Cup ---

~~of the~~ And here is Britain's most famous horsewoman, Miss Pat Smythe, on Prince Hal

~~Miss Pat Smythe~~ This is an entry from Ireland

~~Now~~

Her Majesty the Queen, the Queen Mother and Princess Margaret were ~~early arrivals~~ on this particular evening. The Queen is Patron of the British Horse Society, by whom the Show is presented.

Now --- the King George V Gold Challenge Cup; ~~and here is~~ and here is Dr. Kiernan from Ireland - on Ballynenty
~~by Ballynenty from Ireland.~~

Here is Red Admiral, ridden by Alan Oliver of England --- and tie-ing for second place.

~~And~~ Here is the Cup winner --- Colonel Cartasegne from Italy --- completing a faultless round on Brando

And the Trophy was presented by Her Majesty the Queen.