

un

2613

At the Sydney Stadium --- welterweight champion George Barnes met the Italian, Franco Vescovi. It's Barnes with the stripe on his trunks.

In the ninth round Barnes sent Vescovi down with a leatherbound thunderbolt.

The Italian got up at the count of nine --- but there was another on the way as he was giving up the fight.

FRENCH CHILDREN AT CENOTAPH.

At the Cenotaph in London --- French children, who had come to Britain as guests of the Royal Air Force Escaping Society. During the last war, parents of all these children had risked their lives, helping shot-down airmen of the R.A.F. to escape back to Britain.

FILM OCCASION.

a variety club chant
a ~~brilliant~~ film occasion in London was this premiere --- of which the patron was Princess Alice, Countess of Athlone. It was the first night of the film "Not As A Stranger" --- and the stars Olivia de Havilland and Broderick Crawford had come over specially to be present; as also had their co-star, Robert Mitchum. Among British stars also present, was John Gregson.