Doris Hart in action - at Forest Hills, New York, defending her title Championship tennis at Forest Hills, New York, with Doris Hart serving against

Pat Ward - the first British girl to reach the finals of the U.S.
National Championships for twenty-four years.

And Pat put up a gallant show - leading four-two in the first set - until the experience of the American girl turned the scale...

Miss Hart finally won 6-4, 6-2, to retain her National crown.

~~Talks in Moscow~~

Moscow's gleaming spires must have seemed pointers-of-hope to the Federal German Chancellor, Dr Adenauer, when he arrived for the first session of his talks with Marshal Bulganin.

A welcome, too, from Mr Khrushchev, Secretary of the Communist Party.

~~The meetings opened~~

The talks opened in genial manner - although sharp differences of opinion have been registered over the repatriation of German Prisoners-of-War.
