Dr Adenauer-

An inveterate sightseer, Dr Adenauer- the West German Chancellor made the most of his visit to Moscow, where he was entertained by Marshal Bulganin- at a gala performance of "Romeo and Juliet" at the Bolshoi Theatre.

Another friendly occasion was a luncheon party given by Dr Adenauer. ~~A garden interlude~~ with Premier Bulganin and Mr Khrushchev ~~leading~~ ^{was} followed by the Chancellor and Mr Malenkov. One of the first pictures we've seen of the former Soviet Premier since his resignation. ^{Then} Mr Molotov.

And the friendly nature of the Talks resulted in an agreement to establish diplomatic relations, and an early return of German Prisoners-of-War.

Naples Carnival-

Carnival Time in Naples- with the care-free celebration of "Piedigrotta" - the age-old traditional festival, held in honour of the Virgin Mary. The accent is on song, music and happiness- and the parade of ingenious and wonderful floats adds colour and gaiety to an enchanting Neapolitan occasion.
