In a seventeenth century house in Surrey there's a model of Bluebird in the window --- so you know it's the home of record-breaker Donald Campbell and his wife. ^ And now Mrs Campbell is joined by Donald's mother, whose late husband, Sir Malcolm Campbell, once held ~~the~~ same record. You've noticed that Mrs Campbell is wearing Bluebird earrings --- so let's ask her what is the family significance of that famous emblem. ^

^ Lady Campbell --- how do you feel about Donald's record-breaking ?
This was the 1939 film of Sir Malcolm's world record --- 141 miles an hour. ^ And now his son Donald has pushed that world record speed up to 216 miles an hour. ^ So let's ~~ask Mrs~~ hear from Mrs Campbell what it's like to be the wife of the fastest man on water. ^
