

DIANA DORS.

In Birmingham a new hairdressing salon, ~~was~~ for Mr Raymond was opened by film star Diana Dors with a bottle of champagne. It seems a pity that when they came into the salon, they both had <sup>such a</sup> ~~the~~ well-groomed look, that they didn't need to become the shop's first customers. But obviously on this first day, business was brisk.

A beautiful hair-style is one of the most important assets a girl can have. In Victorian days a woman's hair was called her crowning glory. In Victorian days they hadn't ~~heard of~~ heard of 3-D.

GRACE KELLY.

This is the family home of lovely film star Grace Kelly in Philadelphia --- home of Mr and Mrs Kelly, who announced the engagement of their famous daughter, to Prince Rainier III of Monaco. And here are the happy couple --- facing the newsreels and the Press, on the occasion of this real-life fairy-story.
