

MONTE CARLO RALLY.

20/1/56.

Driving by night and day, the hundreds of cars pursued their ~~last~~ testing way along the continental roads --- leading to journey's end in the Monte Carlo Rally:— Through the picturesque mountain route, that has upset the stomach of many a holiday motorist. The Sunbeam team, were among the ~~first~~ British drivers who finished well in front on points and two Jaguar drivers topped the list, in the penultimate stages.

NASSER PROCLAMATION.

A crowd estimated at a quarter of a million gathered in the Republic Square in Cairo, to hear from Colonel Nasser the proclamation of the new constitution of Egypt, following the revolution. Col. Nasser spoke of the mistakes of his predecessors, and said the new Constitution would give the people what they deserved. They liked that.

GERMAN NAVY.

At Wilhelmshaven, the big German Naval Base on the North Sea, Federal Minister of Defence, Herr Blank, paid a visit to inspect the new sailors of the new navy. This day they were being fitted out with naval uniforms --- after having spent their first weeks, making do with the uniforms of the army.

GERMAN ARMY TRAINING.

<sup>NEW ARRIVALS REPORTED</sup>
~~American instructors~~ arrived for duty at the <sup>OF REASONS GIVEN</sup> Andernach Barracks, near Cologne. And --- under their tuition --- the recruits of the re-born German army began their training.

AIR TACTICAL FORCE.

At the airport at Vicenza, in Northern Italy, high-ranking officers of the American and Italian Air Forces, were present at a ceremony of inauguration. It was the official constitution of the 5th Tactical Air Force.

instructors