

At St Paul's Cathedral the service was held for the enthronement of the new Lord Bishop of London --- the Right Reverend and Right Honourable Henry Colville Montgomery Campbell.

On the Great West Door, the new Bishop knocked three times with his Pastoral Staff.

The Bishop was received by the Dean and Chapter. In his presence were the Cross Bearer and Choir, Canons, Prebendaries and Archdeacons, Deans and other Bishops

~~Then the new Bishop and his procession passed up the Nave to the Choir. Members of the procession taking their places as the Bishop with his chaplains went on to the Sanctuary.~~

The Archdeacon of Canterbury then took the Bishop to the Episcopal throne, for the ceremony of enthronement.

~~Following a prayer by the Dean, the Bishop was seated on the throne.~~

And the service concluded with a blessing from the newly ^{installed} ~~enthroned~~ Bishop of London.
