

West Ham came out first for their Sixth Round Replay at Upton Park --- and the spectators were about to watch a terrific needle-match against the white-shirted visitors from Tottenham.

West Ham kicked off. And this gallant side from way down in the Second Division swept straight into a fierce attack.....trying to get a commanding lead in their bid for the F.A. Cup.

In Spurs they had tough opponents; a high shot for the West Ham goal was well-taken by Gregory.

But just before half-time, Spurs scored their first goal, through Harmer.

In the second half, West Ham put everything they had into the effort to get back on level terms; and, following a throw-in, the ball was centred by O'Farrell, and Billy Dare made it one - all.

A few minutes later, Spurs clinched it with the winning goal from Len Duquemin.

West Ham still tried --- but it was Spurs that went on to the Cup semi-final.
